

REDTAIL HAWK – Kate Wolf (written by George Schroder)

Song: The Redtail Hawk Artist: Kate Wolf

Gm F Gm
The redtail hawk writes songs across the sky,
Gm F Gm
There's music in the waters flowing by,
Gm F Gm
And you can hear a song each time the wind sighs,
Gm F Gm
In the golden rolling hills of California. [2X]

Gm F Gm
It's been so long love since you said goodbye,
Gm F Gm
My cabin's been as lonesome as a cry,
Gm F Gm
There's comfort in the clouds drifting by,
Gm F Gm
In the golden rolling hills of California. [2X]

Gm F Gm
A neighbour came today to lend a hand,
Gm F Gm
As I fixed the road as best as I can,
Gm F Gm
It's just something that needs a man's hand,
Gm F Gm
In the golden rolling hills of California,
Gm F Gm
In the golden rolling hills of California.

Gm F Gm
The redtail hawk writes songs across the sky,
Gm F Gm
There's music in the waters flowing by,
Gm F Gm
And you can hear a song each time the wind sighs,
Gm F Gm
In the golden rolling hills of California.
Gm F Gm
In the golden rolling hills of California. [2X-END]
